

Activities that do not align with Webster's philanthropic priorities (exceptions may be made at the discretion of the Philanthropy team):

- Animal causes
- Arts & culture organizations, programs, activities, and events
- Beauty contests
- Behavioral/mental health
- Capital campaigns
- Childcare/daycare agencies or programs, subsidies, and scholarships
- Civic organizations
- Community or cultural festivals
- Conferences, seminars, panel discussions, and trips
- Conservation, environmental causes
- Consultants
- Debt reduction
- Discriminatory organizations or activities based on race, religion, etc.
- Disease specific organizations and activities
- Endowments
- Food pantries (small/local)
- Golf tournaments
- Historic preservation
- Individuals
- Immigration/refugee programs
- Limited number of individuals being served by an organization/program
- Media-related initiatives (television, radio, film, video, and books)
- Medical equipment, patient treatment funds, etc.
- Municipal/government entities
- Obesity programs
- Pilot programs, new initiatives, and start-ups
- Political Action Committees (PACs)
- Political, labor, civic, or fraternal organizations
- Private foundations
- Private schools, colleges/universities, nursery schools, and prep schools
- Private scholarships/tuition
- Programs, agencies, and communities outside of our geographic footprint
- Public school districts and their individual schools
- Religious activities
- Research and feasibility studies
- Road races/walks/fun runs/bike rides
- Sports, athletic events, or recreational programs/organizations
- Student trips/tours (including transportation and conference costs)
- Substance abuse programs
- Team sponsorships
- Theater, dance, and music programs (stand-alone or as part of a youth development/enrichment program)
- Third parties raising funds for a charity